Advanced Jewish Genealogy

Locating Your Family Records: From Eastern Europe to Kansas City

Steven B. Chernoff, Ph.D.
Professional Genealogist

My Background

- Actively researching genealogy for over 45 years.

15 Dec 2013

My Background

- Attended many IAJGS Conferences
- Attended NGS Conferences
- Used Jewishgen from the beginning before it was a website
- Many research visits to the main LDS library in Salt Lake City
- “On the clock” to become a Certified Genealogist

15 Dec 2013

Today's Goals

- Help you know:
  - Where to look for records
  - How to look for records
- Understand the ease or difficulty in finding and using records

15 Dec 2013

Assumptions

- You are not just starting your genealogy research today
- You are at least, semi-comfortable using the internet
- You have already used and hopefully found records from some of the more common genealogy websites

15 Dec 2013

FYIs

- Many of the indices, tables, and translated records that you will find are not derived from the original documents, but from LDS microfilm of those documents.
- So. What does that mean?
- It means that you can easily obtain those same microfilms to view the original records if you so desire.

15 Dec 2013

FYIs (2)

- However, if you view the original records via microfilm or by digitization on a website:
- The records are not in English!!

15 Dec 2013

Required Websites

- stevemorse.org One-Step Webpages
  - Yiddish, Hebrew and Russian alphabet translation
- www.translate.google.com
  - 80 languages, no keyboard maps

15 Dec 2013

So, Let's Get Started

15 Dec 2013

Jewish Genealogy

- What is it?
  - Mishpachehology
  - A giant jigsaw puzzle – with pieces that not only do you need to fit together; you need to find them first!

Vienna / Austrian Records

The screenshot shows the GenTeam website interface. The header includes the GenTeam logo and navigation links. The left sidebar contains a menu with 'General Information', 'Datenbanken', 'User Profile', and 'Login'. The main content area displays a search result for a record from Vienna. The record details are as follows:

Detail View: Index of the Jewish Records of Vienna
No.	443547
Year	1930
Numerative	31
Code	2
Volume	Stadttempel
Last Name	Keff
First Name	Norbert
Parents
Last Name	Nesselroth
First name	Marjem

Below the record details, there is a legend: Code: 1=Births=2=Marriages 3=Burials

On the right side of the screenshot, there is a sidebar with a 'Database No.' section showing a list of numbers: 75952, 43547, 59528. At the bottom right, there is a footer with the text: '© 2013 www.genteam.at. All Rights Reserved. are released under the GNU/GPL License.'

I truly just found this record and also put it on a Facebook family group that I host. Less than 2 hours later 15 “cousins” from around the world had seen this, including their daughter and grand-daughter.
